

2017 Miller Grant Awards

Arapahoe House – $4,000

Colorado's leading nonprofit provider of affordable drug and alcohol additional treatment.

Catholic Charities - $5,000

This program operates out of a Castle Rock based Outreach Office inside St. Francis of Assisi Church. The funding will be used to purchase King /Soopers gift certificates specifically for groceries and gas to help families struggling to get back on their feet.

Children's Advisory Network - $2,000

This is to provide fund to Wee Screen program.

Colorado Agricultural Leadership Foundation (CALF) - $3,500

This will support the gardening program that provides fresh, healthy food grown at Lowell Ranch to low income families.

Colorado State Patrol Foundation - $1,000

Foundation provides financial and emotional support for State Troopers, State Patrol and civilian staff and their families in times of traumatic injury, death or personal hardships.

Doctors Care - $5,500

Provides access to quality, affordable health care and service for low-income people in need.

Douglas County Parenting Coalition - $2,500

Provides resources, tools, education skills, development and encouragement for parents in need of guidance.

Douglas County Sheriff's Office – Y.E.S.S. - $13,000

This program offers training to assist teachers, community leaders, health care providers, etc. to recognize suicidal signs and where to get help.

Douglas Elbert Task Force - $15,000

Provides utility assistance for residents of Douglas and Elbert Counties.

Integrated Family Community Services - $8,500

Provides access to food and clothing and case management to guide clients in informed decision making to avoid self-destructive lifestyles.

Men's Crisis Connection - $1,000

Non-profit formed to fill a need for services for men in the Castle Rock and surrounding areas to develop a plan to get out of crisis.

Parker Task Force - $15,000

General operating support to serve 400+ families in the Parker and Franktown areas.

Rosie's Ranch - $2,000

Funding to help rebuild the indoor arena that is used to provide therapy programs for hearing impaired youth.

Save Our Youth - $5,000

Provides at-risk youth with skills to navigate through the struggles, temptations and often destructive environments they face through one-on-one-mentoring.

Second Wind Fund - $10,000

Connects children and youth that are at risk of suicide with licensed counselors that have expertise treating this population.

St, Vincent DePaul Society - $12,000

Provides for food and non-food necessities to low-income families and those in crisis.

The Rock Real Community Church - $5,000

Provides full course meals to residents in need of assistance.

Vietnam Veteran's of America - $1,000

Provides direct support for veterans.

Zuma's Rescue Ranch - $1,000

Provides equine assisted learning programs.