INTRODUCTION

This Board Policy Manual, as adopted by the Board of County Commissioners, includes three categories of governing principles. The first is the Board's Core Priorities and Strategic Objectives, stating the BCC's direction, vision and intended outcomes for the citizens and taxpayers of Douglas County. Next is the Governance Process/Commitments, which clarifies the Board's roles and responsibilities; how they work together; how they work with the County Manager and County Attorney; and how they relate to the citizens of Douglas County. The third section, Staff Operations and Limitations, describes the constraints and limits of the authority and responsibilities of the County Manager and the County Attorney in their roles directing the staff of the Board of County Commissioners.

The BCC acknowledges the roles and statutory responsibilities of the County's other Elected Offices. Nothing contained in this document is intended to interfere with the responsibilities and duties of the other Elected Officials or their Offices. The BCC realizes they are responsible for providing the funding and organizational support necessary for all County operations.

PURPOSE OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Douglas County's three-member Board of County Commissioners is the main policy-making body in the County and works to represent the interests of the citizens of Douglas County at local, state, and national levels. Commissioners are elected at large from one of three geographic districts for four-year staggered terms. In Douglas County, Commissioners are limited to serving two four-year terms.

Colorado State Statutes designate counties to function as an administrative arm of State government and to serve as the legislative, policy-making, and administrative body governing unincorporated areas of the County.

County Commissioners are responsible under state statute for the health, safety and welfare of the citizens including: law enforcement, which includes supporting the courts and the district attorney function as well as providing jail facilities through the Sheriff; human services, including administering and carrying out virtually all programs overseen by the Colorado Department of Human Services. Counties may provide health services, although their ability to do so depends on resources available. In Douglas County, health services are provided through a partnership with Tri-County Health.

Commissioners have a responsibility to provide leadership to County operations through the adoption of the annual budget, which includes all departments, offices, commissions and other spending agencies funded by county appropriations.

Other powers, authorities, and statutory responsibilities of the Board of County Commissioners include, but are not limited to, the following:

- intergovernmental collaboration in the interest of problem-solving and long-range planning
- manage the business and concerns of the County and care for County property, including the acquisition and disposal of County property
- road and bridge construction, maintenance and repair
- establishment of voting precincts
- weed control
- adoption of subdivision regulations
- liquor licensing
- enter into contracts, receive grants and gifts
- levy taxes, subject to state tax revenue limitations
- incur debt, either revenue debt (based solely on a specified revenue stream) or general obligation debt, which constitutes a general obligation to repay the debt
- accurate and timely reporting to state and federal agencies as required

Additional information, including statutory references, may be found in the County Commissioner Handbook, published by Colorado Counties, Inc. (CCI).

1.0 CORE PRIORITIES AND STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

2.0 GOVERNING PROCESS/COMMITMENTS

To further its accountability to the citizens and taxpayers of Douglas County, the Board of County Commissioners (BCC) commits to govern lawfully, with an emphasis on: a) outward vision; b) strategic leadership rather than administrative detail; c) clear distinction of Board, County Manager, and County Attorney roles; d) collective rather than individual decisions.

- The BCC will operate fully aware of its fiduciary responsibilities, trusteeship and stewardship obligations to its constituents.
- The BCC expects ethical and business-like conduct of its commissioners.
- The BCC will cultivate a sense of group responsibility. The BCC may use the expertise of individual members to enhance the Board's understanding of issues, but decisions will be made as a group. A Commissioner who votes in the minority is free to express his/her dissent but must respect the legitimacy of the majority decision.
- The BCC will enforce upon itself whatever discipline is needed to govern with excellence. Discipline will apply to matters such as attendance, preparation for meetings, policymaking principles, respect of roles, adherence to BCC code of conduct.
- The BCC will regularly monitor and assess its process and performance.
- The BCC will monitor organizational performance through a fair assessment of whether its Priorities and Staff Operations and Limitations Policies are being fulfilled.

2.1 BCC'S ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The role of the BCC is to listen to, represent, and serve the citizens and taxpayers of Douglas County.

Accordingly, the roles and responsibilities of the BCC shall be:

- To provide written governing policies that address the achievement of intended long-term results, not on the administrative or programmatic means of achieving those results.
- To establish and monitor, at least annually, organizational core priorities and strategic objectives.
- To hire a County Manager and a County Attorney.
- To evaluate the performance of the County Manager and County Attorney through regularly scheduled monitoring.

- Only officially passed motions of the BCC are binding on the County Manager and/or County Attorney.
- Individual commissioners may request information or assistance without Board authorization and those requests shall be reasonably honored; however, should the County Manager or County believe such a request requires an inappropriate amount of staff time or funds or is disruptive, he/she can refer it to the full Board for authorization to proceed.
- The BCC is responsible for: adopted resolutions, regulations, ordinances, and fee schedules; land use; legislative positions; Ambulance Licenses; representing the County on external boards and commissions; the Audit; the Budget; Boards and Commissions; and statutorily mandated items.
- The BCC serves as the Board of Human Services, Board of Adjustment, and the Liquor Licensing Authority.

2.2 RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE CHAIR OF THE BCC

The Chair of the BCC ensures the integrity of the BCC process. While the default public representative of the board shall be the Chair, each commissioner bears the responsibility of sharing official positions of the Board to outside organizations depending on membership, expertise, and other factors which the BCC may determine in its discretion.

Accordingly, the Chair has the following authority and duties:

- To lead the BCC so that BCC performance is consistent with its own rules and policies and those legally imposed on it from outside the organization.
 - Ensure deliberations are fair, open and thorough, but also efficient, timely, orderly, and to the point.
 - Ensure BCC meeting deliberations include those issues pertaining to BCC roles and responsibilities.
- The Chair will determine the agenda for meetings, although any Commissioner is welcome to request or recommend appropriate matters for BCC consideration.
 - A Commissioner may recommend or request a matter for BCC discussion by submitting the item to the Chair no later than the regularly scheduled agenda planning session.
 - The meeting agenda will be finalized, by the Chair, at a regular agenda planning session.
- The Chair is empowered to preside at Board meetings with all the commonly accepted power of that position, such as ruling and recognizing.
- The Chair has no individual authority to make decisions about policies created by the Board or the individual authority to supervise or direct the County Manager or County Attorney.

- To sign all contracts and documents authorized by the BCC.
- It is the intent of the BCC to select the Chair and Vice Chair by rotating on an annual basis by district, however the Board reserves the right to deviate from this process as the BCC in its discretion deems appropriate.

2.3 COMMISSIONERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

The BCC commits itself to ethical, businesslike, and lawful conduct, including proper use of authority and appropriate decorum when acting as the BCC. The BCC acknowledges it has fiduciary and ethical responsibilities to the public trust.

- Each Commissioner shall fulfill his/her duties unconflicted by loyalties to staff; other organizations, including interest or advocacy groups; and any personal interest as a consumer.
- Each Commissioner must avoid breaching his/her fiduciary duty and the public trust.
 - Each Commissioner will meet with the County Attorney as needed, and at least annually, to discuss potential conflicts of interest. If a determination is made that a potential conflict of interest exists, or the appearance of a conflict of interest may exist, disclosure shall be made in accordance with state law and Board policy.
 - No Commissioner shall engage in a substantial financial transaction for his/her private business purposes with a person the Commissioner oversees or supervises in the course of official BCC duties.
 - No Commissioner shall perform an official act that directly and substantially benefits a business, or negatively affects a competing business, in which he/she either has a substantial financial interest or is engaged as counsel, consultant, representative, or agent.
 - A Commissioner who has a personal or private interest in any matter proposed or pending before the County shall disclose such interest to the BCC, and to the public when and if appropriate, and shall not vote thereon and shall refrain from attempting to influence in any manner the decisions of the other members of the BCC.
- A commissioner shall at no time accept an offer of employment from any entity, including Douglas County Government or any private sector employer, in consideration of any promise to act or not act for the benefit of said employer while the commissioner is in office.
- Commissioners shall not attempt to exercise individual authority over the organization. The County Manager and County Attorney are accountable only to the BCC as a governing body, and not to individual Commissioners.
- Commissioners will adhere to the confidentiality of issues whether in writing or verbally, as prescribed by law:

- Any documents that are prohibited from disclosure under the Colorado Open Records Act, Criminal Justice Records Act or other statutory authority shall not be publicly disclosed.
 - Any information shared with the BCC in a properly called executive session, shall be presumed to be confidential, and shall not be publicly disclosed.
 - Any information for which disclosure is an issue that suggests a likely privacy interest of one or more individuals, or is otherwise contrary to public policy, shall not be disclosed.
 - Any documents previously determined to be confidential and not subject to public disclosure pursuant to State law, may be reconsidered for disclosure upon the affirmative support of the BCC. Questions regarding legal parameters for disclosure shall be relayed to the County Attorney prior to any disclosure.
- If a Commissioner suspects another Commissioner has violated any laws or Board policies, he or she shall bring the matter to the attention of the individual and/or the BCC. The BCC will seek to resolve the matter expeditiously.

2.4 BCC - EXECUTIVE CONNECTION & COUNTY MANAGER ACCOUNTABILITY

The Board's sole official connection to the operational organization, its achievements and conduct will be through a Chief Executive Officer, titled County Manager. The County Manager is the Board's only link to operational achievement and conduct, so that all authority and accountability of staff, as far as the BCC is concerned, is considered the sole authority and accountability of the County Manager.

Accordingly:

- The BCC will not give instructions to persons who report directly or indirectly to the County Manager.
- The BCC will not directly evaluate any staff other than the County Manager and the County Attorney.
- The BCC will view County Manager performance as identical to organizational performance, so that organizational accomplishment of BCC priorities and compliance with Staff Operations and Limitations policies will be viewed as successful County Manager performance.
- The BCC shall communicate to the County Manager information concerning staff member issues or performance.

2.5 ACCOUNTABILITY OF THE COUNTY ATTORNEY

The BCC shall have a County Attorney. The purpose of the County Attorney is to ensure that the Board's actions take place with competent and prudent legal counsel and representation. The County Attorney represents the BCC and anyone acting on its behalf so long as they are not acting in conflict with the BCC or its policies. In addition, the County Attorney represents the other Douglas County Elected or Appointed Officials so long as they are acting within their statutory duties.

Accordingly:

- The County Attorney is accountable to the Board acting as a body, never to any individual Board member or group of members, nor to the County Manager.
- County Attorney accountability is for all resources, including personnel, under his or her control. Therefore, any accomplishments or violations due to actions of a subordinate of the County Attorney are considered to be accomplishments or violations by the County Attorney.
- The County Attorney may accomplish the duties of the position in any manner not imprudent, unethical, or in violation of the prohibitions listed in this document.
- The County Attorney may use any reasonable interpretation of Board policies as they pertain to his/her authority and accountability. The County Attorney is authorized to establish all further policies, make all decisions, take all actions and develop all activities as long as they are consistent with any reasonable interpretation of the Board's policies.

DUTIES OF THE COUNTY ATTORNEY

- Timely opinion on documents and contemplated decisions or actions of the BOCC and the County Manager.
- Timely opinion on the legal ramifications of pending or actual laws, regulations, court decisions, and pending or threatened litigation.
- Timely opinion on the legality or propriety under the law of the Board's processes.
- Timely opinion on the legality or propriety under the law of pending or actual acts or omissions of any Commissioner, Board, Committee, Commission, or the County Manager.
- When requested or appropriate, alternate language or action to achieve Board or County Manager intentions in a lawful manner.
- Timely and thoughtful advice and recommendations on the range of legal options available.
- Litigation:
 - (i) Advice regarding avoidance of litigation or settlement of potential litigation.
 - (ii) Timely provision to the Board and the County Manager on the status of settlement negotiations and all threatened/actual litigation.
 - (iii) Settlement of litigation, with authority as obtained from the Board.
 - (iv) Diligent and competent representation of the Board and the County in litigation.

2.6 BOARD COMMITTEE PRINCIPLES

BCC Boards, Committees and Commissions will be appointed to assist the Board in carrying out its responsibilities and not to interfere with delegation from the BCC to County Manager or County Attorney.

Accordingly, the following principles shall guide the appointment and operation of all BCC appointed Boards, Committees, and Commissions:

- A BCC appointed Board, Committee and Commission is recognized as such only if its existence and charge come from the BCC or is required by law.
- Appointment Process:
 - Board, Committee and Commission vacancies will be advertised as they become available.
 - For specific district appointments, the Commissioner from that district may nominate a resident of his or her district. The Board may consider district nominees from outside his or her district only when qualified applicants are not available or have not applied from within the district.
 - For boards and committees that have at-large appointments, any member of the Board may nominate an appointee.⁴
 - Some appointees are required, by State Statute or bylaw, to represent specific groups and/or interests (e.g., municipal representative, specific credential or position).
 - The Board may elect to interview applicants to certain boards and commissions.
 - In all cases, the full Board makes the final decision and appointment in a Business Meeting.
- BCC appointed Boards, Committees and Commissions may not speak or act for the BCC except when formally given such authority for specific and time-limited purposes.
- The BCC may strategically use ad hoc committees for specific purposes and limited timeframes.
- BCC appointed Boards, Committees and Commissions will have clear and specific goals, objectives, and timelines. At least once each year, the BCC will evaluate the existence and/or necessity of its Boards, Committees and Commissions.
- Any member of a BCC appointed Board, Committee or Commission is required to follow applicable ethics laws, Board policies, authorizing Resolutions and the signed Boards and Commissions' Code of Conduct. Members will operate within the bounds of applicable statutory authority.
- Members of BCC appointed Boards, Committees and Commissions shall attend no less than seventy-five percent (75%) of all regularly scheduled and special meetings during the year.
- A person may serve on no more than one BOCC appointed Board, Committee or Commission at a time, unless it is specifically called for in the bylaws or structure of a given committee. Appointments to Ad Hoc Committees created by the BOCC are exempt from the single committee service limitation because members of other BOCC appointed Boards, Committees and Commissions may be deemed to have key knowledge that could be useful to an Ad Hoc Committee.
