

Diane Holbert
Treasurer

Diane Holbert is serving her second term as Douglas County Treasurer. Diane holds a Bachelors Degree in Economics from the University of Colorado at Denver. Team leadership was the focus of her twenty-four year career in the real estate finance industry. As the Douglas County Treasurer, Diane serves as the Investment Officer of all county funds and is responsible for the collection and distribution of property taxes.

Diane is the current Past President Colorado County Treasurer's Association (CCTA), serves on the City of Aurora Investment Advisory Committee, serves on State Treasurer's Stapleton Investment advisory committee and is Vice-Chair of C-Safe, Local Government Investment Pool.

Diane and her family have resided in Douglas County since 2003. "Douglas County is where my husband and I intend to spend the whole of our days. It is a spectacularly beautiful county in which our children can partake of excellent education, recreational activities and embark on their own careers," Holbert said.

Diane enjoys spending time with her family, reading, Bible-study. and enjoying the Colorado outdoors.

Updated November 20, 2015