Electrical and plumbing contractors are licensed by the State of Colorado to help ensure that they are competent and capable of meeting the relevant technical and safety standards for your project. Each license type has a defined set of competence criteria that contractors must meet to achieve and maintain a license. Douglas County requires electrical and plumbing contractors to be registered with the County prior to doing any work within its boundaries.

General, mechanical and roofing contractors are not licensed by the State of Colorado. The Douglas County Building Division requires that these contractors be licensed by Douglas County prior to doing any work within its boundaries.

The Douglas County Building Division requires that contractors show proof of legal presence, current workman's compensation and liability insurance, and current state licensing when required.

Using an un-licensed or un-insured contractor may lead to unintended consequences or even civil liabilities.

THE DOUGLAS COUNTY BUILDING DIVISION CURRENTLY PROVIDES LICENSING AND REGISTRATION SERVICES AT NO ADDITIONAL COST TO THE CONTRACTOR.

Each contractor should have proof of licensing, insurance and warranty information available to you.
