HOW TO CURE THE DEFAULT ON A FORECLOSED PROPERTY

Colorado Revised Statute 38-38-104 makes provisions for a property owner to cure the default on his mortgage before it goes to foreclosure sale.

Filing an Intent to Cure

The Intent to Cure form must be filed with the office of the Public Trustee fifteen (15) days prior to the scheduled foreclosure sale date.

The owner must provide evidence of ownership. This may be in the form of the recorded Warranty Deed, Quitclaim Deed, etc. If you do not have the document, a recorded copy may be obtained at the Clerk and Recorder's office of Douglas County.

Upon receipt of the completed Intent to Cure form, the Public Trustee will request the cure amount from the attorney for the foreclosing party. The foreclosing party must provide the cure amount to the Office of the Public Trustee on or before twelve (12) noon on the seventh (7) calendar day prior to the sale date. Failure to provide these figures will postpone the foreclosure sale for no longer than two weeks.

You will be contacted as soon as the Office of the Public Trustee receives the cure figures. The funds must be presented to the Office of the Public Trustee no later than twelve (12) noon the day before the scheduled foreclosure sale date. The funds must be in the form of cash, certified funds, teller's check or a draft denominated as an official check that is a teller's check or a cashier's check as those terms are defined in and governed by the "Uniform Commercial Code", title 4, C.R.S.

SOME THINGS TO REMEMBER:

- * The Public Trustee cannot accept late Intent to Cure forms
- * It may take 14 days to receive the cure amount - please file your Intent to Cure as soon as possible.
- * It is your responsibility to contact the office of the Public Trustee for updated figures for the amount to cure as interest, late fees, attorney fees, etc., continue to accrue.
- * Please provide a working phone number or email address where we may contact you with the cure amount.
